BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.
Washoe County, Nevada, May 1st, 1882.
Present—Joseph Frey, Chairman; D. H. Lodge, R. H. Kinney; Geo. A. Rankin, District Attorney; R. S. Osburn, Clerk.

It appearing to the Board that the order heretofore published in the Platteville, on the 18th day of February, concerning the apportionment of the tax for the construction of a sidewalk along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, contained a misdescription of the block, the same being described as block O. It is ordered that the said order be published in the DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL, for two consecutive weeks, to-wit:

ORDER—It appearing to the Board of County Commissioners that heretofore, to-wit: on this 31 day of October, 1881, a petition of the majority of the frontage property owners along the north side of block Q, in the town of Reno, praying an order of this Board for the construction of a plank sidewalk along said block, and that on the 14th day of November, 1881, after due consideration and notice thereof, published in the Platteville, a newspaper published in said town of Reno, for the period of two consecutive weeks, and it further appearing that said sidewalk was constructed as per the order of this Board by all the frontage property along said block, except seventy-five feet, to-wit: fifty feet along the front of lots 16 and 17, owned by I. B. Marshall, and twenty-five feet along the front of lot 14, belonging to the Western Union Telegraph Company, in said block, and the Board thereupon advertised for bids for the construction of said seventy-five feet of sidewalk and it appearing that the bid of Joseph Odett, in the sum of seventy-five dollars, was the lowest and best bid, and the same being accepted, and it further appearing that said sidewalk has been constructed by said Joseph Odett along the front of lots 14, 16 and 17, and that the costs thereof is $75.

Now therefore, it is ordered that the cost of the construction of said sidewalk be apportioned among the frontage owners of said lots as follows: To the said I. B. Marshall, owning lots 16 and 17, 60 feet, $50; to the said Western Union Telegraph Company, owning lot 14, 25 feet, $25.

THE CHINESE MUST GO

A Step in the Right Direction—Porter, Slessinger & Co. Make Room for White Labor—Who's Next?

The Bulletin says Messrs Porter, Slessinger & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes, at No 509 Sanson street, San Francisco, on Saturday last discharged the last Chinaman employed by them, and in future will make use of white labor only. Formerly some fifty Chinamen were employed in the factory as bottomers, but the firm concluded that white labor would be cheaper in the end, even at a little higher wages, as better work would be done and a greater variety of work made possible. The firm anticipates no difficulty in filling the places left vacant by the discharged Chinamen, and are now in search of white shoemakers to take their places. The employees of the shop, embracing 230 men and 22 girls, have been organized by J G White, an employe, into a League of Deliverance, the members of which agree to use no goods of any kind in the manufacture of which Chinese labor is employed. This feeling also crops out in the letters of the customers of the firm from all parts of the State, the almost universal demand being for goods made entirely by white labor. The experience of the firm has been that first-class goods cannot be made by Chinese labor, and they gladly discharge the Chinamen to make room for white workmen. It is estimated that there are fully 9,000 Chinamen engaged in the manufacture of shoes in the city.

The Republican Revolt in Pennsylvania.

The President has never witnessed a more unusual proceeding than occurred at the White House Tuesday morning. Senator Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, who recently declared his intention to bolt the regular nominated Republican State ticket, has been earnest for the past week in denouncing two nominations for Collector of Internal Revenue in the Keystone State, made by the President before the Convention declared itself against the use of patronage for political purposes. Jackson and Kaufman are the nominees, and the Independents have clamored night and day for their withdrawal. Tuesday morning Senator Mitchell, with an armful of clippings from independent newspapers, called upon the President and directed his attention to the editorials and other remonstrances he had received against the removal of Sullivan and Wiley, the old officials. He did not advise the President what to do but directed his attention to the row brewing in Pennsylvania, and handed him the clippings. The President received them with considerable astonishment and politely informed the Senator that he would take the matter into consideration, and bowed him out. Mitchell has hoisted the black flag in earnest, and he will attend the Independent Convention next week. Senator Mitchell is receiving many letters urging him to remain firm against Stalwartism in Pennsylvania.

George Hearst of San Francisco, publishes a card in the Examiner formally announcing himself as a candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket. He intimates that the overshadowing issue will be the Chinese question, on which his position is pronounced. He promises, if nominated, to use every honorable effort to win the fight, and if elected, to discharge the duties in the interest of the people. Mr Hearst has a large "back" himself, but when it needs replenishing, Mr Lloyd Lewis will stand in the breach. Mr Hearst will be Governor of California.

Under instructions from the General of the army General Wilcox, Commander of the Department of Arizona, has officially congratulated Minor Ruppert on the result of his recent brilliant campaign.

President Arthur has appointed Senator W H Brown, of El Dorado, Surveyor General of California, and Samuel W Backus, of San Francisco, Postmaster at San Francisco. Both good men.

The first colored man appointed as a Toronto letter carrier received his appointment Tuesday. The other carriers threaten to resign if he is assigned to duty.

Worthington, now Boston's Collector of Customs, says he will duly make the change in the force necessary to insure efficiency.

Daggett is an Ohio man. Hence maybe the Hawaiian Mission.

Alex. H. Stephens will be the next Governor of Georgia.

Making the Round Trip

A ship ought to make a round trip between San Francisco and Liverpool annually. A good many do it. Some have quite a margin to spare. There is necessarily some detention at Liverpool. This varies from two to six weeks, sometimes longer. Last year the St. Stephen arrived here in April in a round trip of 261 days, including a detention of 34 days at Liverpool. Some of the vessels sent off at the beginning of the current cereal year are now arriving back. The first ship to leave last July was the Yorktown. This vessel went to Havre, and made the trip out in 129 days. Havre is a good port to sail to, but is not a good port to sail from, if the vessel be bound to the United States. It is difficult to get any return cargo at that port, or even a good send off in ballast. We do not know how the Yorktown returned to the Atlantic coast, but she is now out 52 days from New York for this port with an assorted cargo. It is possible for her to get back inside of a year from the time she left. The Yorktown is a 2,000 ton ship, and if she do not sail as fast as some, she carries enough more to make up.

Following in the wake of the Yorktown from this port, but twenty-four hours later, were the James Nesmith and Edward May. There was only one day's difference in the arrival of these two vessels, the former making the trip out in 126 days and the latter in 127 days. The James Nesmith is now in this port, having made the voyage back from Cardiff 120 days, arriving here April 21st. She was promptly chartered for wheat, and will probably be off again this month. She made the round trip in 292 days, having been detained 46 days in unloading at Cardiff. The Edward May is reported to be 106 days out from Liverpool for San Francisco via Honolulu. Most of the wheat vessels sent away from this port come back to us by way of some domestic Atlantic port or some port in Australia. Several of the July August and September vessels are now on the way back direct from Europe. One of the August vessels—the Mariposa—arrived back a few days ago, having made the round trip in 270 days, including a detention of 35 days at Liverpool, in which she discharged 1,700 tons wheat, and took aboard a similar quantity of coal and other freight. She is now loading wheat for another voyage.—S F Bulletin.

The Pacific Railroad Grants to Stand

The Senate Judiciary Committee Tuesday almost unanimously decided to report adversely that section of Cobb's bill declaring the land grants of the Northern Pacific forfeited. The law governing the Pacific roads namely, the Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific and Atlantic Pacific, is different from the statutes governing grants to other roads. The Northern Pacific Act does not provide for the forfeiture of lands, but in the event of non-compliance with its provisions by the company, allows the Government to take the road and further its construction in any way feasible. The committee has concluded that inasmuch as but 600 miles of the Northern Pacific road remains to be completed, and its construction has been pushed vigorously and in good faith in spite of numerous obstacles notably the failure of Jay Cooke & Co., that it would be not only inequitable but beyond the spirit of the law to forfeit the grant made to this road. Whether the same spirit will govern the committee in relation to the other Pacific roads is not absolutely certain, but it is the general impression among members of the committee that the other two roads have done the best that could be accomplished under the circumstances, and that there is really no good cause for the forfeiture of their lands. It is expected that they will therefore recommend that the grants to all the Pacific roads be allowed to stand.

The Youngest Veteran.

Some discussion having arisen as to who is the youngest veteran soldier. A resident of Sacramento proves himself to be entitled to the honor. F J Kearney, late Captain of the City Guard of Sacramento puts in his claim as follows:

I was born November 3, 1852, on board the United States storeship Fredonia, at sea. Enlisted at the age of nine years, one month and four days, in Company D, Second Infantry, California Volunteers, for three years as drummer. Was mustered out of service December 9, 1864, at Fort Presidio, I was when enlisted four feet two inches in height, re-enlisted in Company B, Ninth Infantry, regulars, at the age of fourteen years, four months and twenty-seven days, served three years as bugler. I have my discharges and any one wishing to see them can call at 695 I street, Sacramento.

The first through passenger train from Kansas City to Denver by the Atchison, Topeka and Rio Grande roads arrived Monday. This gives Denver another through standard gauge to the Missouri river, without change.

THE NATION'S JUDGES.

Pen Pictures of the Men Who Fill the Supreme Bench.

The Supreme Court of the United States—the great harbinger, sheet-anchor, safety-valve, etc., of our liberties—has during the week sat with a full bench for the first time in three years. I dropped in on the Court a day or two ago. What a jolly old set! There was the Chief Justice, with iron-gray hair, thick and stiff, and whiskers just the same, a big nose and a big mouth, wrapped in his black silk gown, but looking very little like a Chief Justice. But he attends to his business, leaves politics to the dogs, and is respected by his associates. On his right, oldest in commission of any one on the bench, is Justice Miller, round and fat and sixty-four, a little bald and closely-shaven face. On the bench he is as cross as a hatchet, for he hates circumlocution and shams (and half the bar is made of them), but off the bench he is as jolly and kind and gentle as any man you ever saw. He has been regarded for ten years as the ablest man on the bench. The three last appointments on the bench may change this, but I doubt it.

On the Chief Justice's left is Justice Field, appointed as a Republican, but now a pesky old Democrat. He is tall, bald headed, spectacled, full bearded, with a Jewish cast of countenance. Smart he is, too, as all the Fields are. He writes strong opinions and is popular. He is a most entertaining companion and a great traveler and scholar. Drink? yes, once in a while. Miller and Field respectively are the two oldest Judges in commission on the Bench. Justice Bradley is the next in point of rank—a thin, refined, closely-shaven, gray-haired scholar, judicially looking old gentleman, who doesn't seem to have much to say to any one. Justice Harlan, fourth in rank (excepting, of course, the Chief Justice), is a specimen Kentuckian—a giant in his way. Big body, big head, big hands, big feet, long legs, long arms and long headed, without a doubt. He is at least six feet six inches in height. He rents a furnished house from a friend of mine and my friend had to have made, especially for the great Kentuckian, a nine foot bedstead, with mattresses, blankets, sheets, etc., to correspond, and also one for the son of the Judge, who is as tall. Judge Harlan was a strong acquisition to the Bench, and is popular on the Bench and off. Chew tobacco, did you say? well, I should think so, and he knows a glass of Bourbon when he tastes it. There is not much known of Justice Woods. He is a grizzly, slouching man, whose personal bearing and appearance are not at all striking. He is a Judge by appointment, but he doesn't look like one. Justice Stanley Matthews is built on a big model, physically and mentally. He is self-poised, dignified and fine looking. As an intellectual force he scarcely has a superior on the bench. He is quiet in his intercourse and does not seem to care to extend his acquaintance. Justice Gray is a tall, white-haired peppery old bachelor, who snaps up everybody and had rather quarrel than win a cause. When he first came on the bench here he was nearly killed with heavy eating and drinking, but that time is over. As the old judges are very tenacious of the rights of seniors he is not likely to be popular. Justice Blatchford, the last appointment, looks like your own George W Childs and is therefore, clean, genial, affable, well dressed and kindly natured—sure looks do not count.

WHERE THE JUDGES LIVE

Chief Justice Waite lives in a hand some house on Rhode Island avenue, Judge Miller owns a fine house on Massachusetts avenue, Judge Field has a large, well built house on Capitol Hill—a present from his brother Cyrus—a portion of what was once known as the Old Capitol Prison. In this building Henry Clay presided three terms as Speaker of the House, and in front of it James Monroe and John Quincy Adams were inaugurated. President John C Calhoun died in it. Judge Bradley owns and occupies the house on I street which was given to General Grant, and from which he was first inaugurated. General Sherman then became the owner, and from him Judge Bradley purchased it. Judge Harlan lives in a costly rented house, Judge Woods boards on G street, Judge Matthews is building a very imposing and costly mansion on Connecticut avenue opposite the British Legation, Judge Gray boards at Wormley's and Judge Blatchford has just purchased a $50,000 house on K street. The mutations of time affect even the Supreme Court, for of the bench twenty years ago not a single Judge remains—all dead. Only two Judges of the bench of twelve years ago remain, namely, Miller and Field—all the others are dead, except Davis, now in the Senate, and Swaine, retired.—Washington Corr Philadelphia Press.

NEVADA'S RICH SENATOR

Colonel Fair's Entertainments in Washington

The mutations of time, says the Washington correspondent of the St Louis Globe-Democrat, are being brought forward in strange ways here. Senator Fair, the Nevada millionaire, has again given a dinner party that would make all the Mayflower descendants and grandsons of the old Knickerbockers thereof, as far as pomp and official power can go. At his right hand sat, as his guest, the President of the United States, whose own history is like a fairy story of great and unexpected luck, yet whose position and eminence as ruler of the great Republic entitle him to the same veneration as a crowned head. Old Californians, the brave argonauts of '49, who find their declining years unaccompanied by the golden heaps they dreamed of, when scurrying and digging along the river banks, like to tell as an instructive tale how the men who came out many years later found their millions by accidentally digging on a sagabrush plain. Flood, Fair, O'Brien, Mackay and Sharon made their millions many times over "on the Comstock," as the great silver region of Nevada is familiarly termed, after years of waiting and weary prospecting. Natural talent and quick common sense, aided by luck, carried all these men to the top, and the bonanza kings are now too solidly established and shrewdly aware of their chances to retrograde a penny's worth in their vast fortunes. For nearly twenty years Senator Fair worked in all rough ways and pick in hand, when his luck rose as suddenly as if fired off by one of his own fuses. With his millions he surrounded himself with everything his tastes and fancies could wish for. He built a palace of a home for his family at Virginia City, and a retinue of tutors instructed his children. His oldest son made a tour of the world, accompanied by a Professor, and his two little daughters have had every advantage. Another palace was built for the Fairs on the crest of the famous Nob Hill of San Francisco, and Mrs Fair and her four children are living there. In that city alone the Assessor put the Senator down for $2,000,000, and with his other diverse interests and possessions, it would worry him considerably to try to count up all his wealth.

In Washington he has kept up a series of hospitalities that have taken every form his kindly ingenuity could devise. Banquets to political friends and colleagues have always been brightened with the presence of ladies, and one time he gave a dinner to twenty young ladies and two chaperones that surpassed all his previous efforts. Another time he took twenty-five young people and a few elders on a picnic party to the Great Falls of the Potomac. Servants were sent ahead to prepare the way, and an elaborate lunch was served with crystal, wines and china, such as made the ancient regions and the venerable hotel by the Chesapeake canal open its eyes. The other night, for his dinner to the President and Cabinet, omelette blanche was given, and everything was on a most elaborate scale. The table was first a feast of flowers, an inland sea of roses tossing white and crimson waves up to the edges of the plates, and islands of buds and blossoms rising in the center.

The rarest treasures of the forest were laid on the board, and the immense Jacqueminots, Meimets and Cornelia Cooks were the admiration of the ladies, who each carried away a gift basket tied with pale satin ribbons and over running with great roses. The Vice President, four Cabinet Ministers, a Justice of the Supreme Court, one Senator and one Representative, with as many ladies, made up the party, and if there was a social ambition in the heart of the Belfast boy and the sturdy miner it had its satisfaction that night. The jovial Senator, with his solid, muscular figure, full beard and hair of iron gray, was a rather handsome countenance, lighted with a pair of keen and twinkling eyes, is a favorite with all sides, and, by his warm and generous nature, his political foes are his warmest personal friends. With five more years as a Senator before him, Mr Fair will, in time, make himself known by another fame than that of his marvelous wealth, and people see in him a double celebrity.

THE PARKE FURNITURE.

Tuesday's Auction sale—A Romance Recalled.

The Virginia Chronicle says: "The auction sale of the personal property of Ira S. Parke Tuesday attracted fully 500 people to the Parke Mansion in Six-mile Canyon. The prices realized were for the most part much below value. A few of the smaller pieces of furniture were taken at fair figures. The furniture sold was bought 12 years ago, and was the most expensive outfit ever brought to this city. There was a romance connected with Ira Parke's life in which the buying of this furniture was an incident. Feeling that he was getting to be somewhat advanced in years Mr. Parke decided to take a wife, and in order to get one entirely to his liking, concluded to have a girl reared and educated with that particular object in view—making a mistake not unknown to other elderly men who have gone before him. Accordingly he sent to school a most estimable young woman, and as he watched the gradual development of her personal and intellectual charms, counted himself a happy man. The young lady's school course being finished, the big brick house which had been built to receive her was sumptuously furnished, and she was invited to enter it as its mistress. It was then that Mr. Parke was informed by his fiancée that her heart was irrevocably another's, and that though she would fulfill her engagement and marry him, she could never love him with the devotion due from a wife to her husband. With true manliness Mr. Parke promptly released the lady from her promise, and settled down to live an old bachelor's life in the palatial mansion which he had expected would be brightened by her presence, but which now appeared a dungeon. Mr. Parke never married."

For Star-Gazers.

Into one short month (the present month of May), says the Providence Journal, are crowded more important events than those that sometimes illustrate the records of several successive months. The conjunction of the three largest planets of the system with the sun, the conjunction of six planets with each other, the superior conjunction of Mercury, the total eclipse of the sun (invisible here), and the occultation of Jupiter, form a brilliant success of phenomena as imposing to the mental eye as they are beautiful to the physical eye. The grand feature of the month is, however, the number of planet in line with the sun at nearly the same time, and the marvelous preponderance of planetary attraction pulling upon the sun in one direction. Mercury is first to drop in line, Saturn and Neptune follow next, and gigantic Jupiter is the last to join the ranks. The sun is now passing through the maximum of sun spots. Whether the planets have anything to do with the commotion agitating his surface is something which no astronomer has yet been able to determine. The problem remains to be solved in the astrology of the future.

Tuscarora Mines.

The Elko Independent learns that the outlook at the various leading mines is more satisfactory than could reasonably have been anticipated, recent unexpected developments giving positive assurance of lively times this season, at least. The new discovery in the Central has been prospected westward 100 feet and to the east 150 feet, disclosing at a depth of 13 feet a 7-foot ledge, an average of the ore across its entire face giving an assay of $190 to the ton. Samples of the high grade ore from the lead, shown us, would assay nearer $1,000. The Defies mine, which for a long time has lain idle, has been worked to a limited extent lately, resulting in the discovery of a body of very good ore, 40 tons of which have been extracted and is soon to be reduced at the mill. In the Argenta explorations are reported as being very satisfactory, and in the Navajo the ore developments are said to exceed anything heretofore uncovered in that mine. The Belle Isle and its North extension have been making fair shipments of bullion again lately, and a number of other mines of less prominence, upon which prospecting is going forward, will probably be heard from favorably in due time.

Messrs. Mackay and Fair to Return Soon.

Colonel J. Minor Taylor yesterday informed a Chronicle reporter that John N. Mackay is expected in Virginia city on the 1st of July. Senator Fair will, it is thought, leave Washington for Nevada in about three weeks.

Pork—Live hogs, 7 1/2¢ to 8¢ for hard, and 6 1/2¢ to 6 3/4¢ for soft; stock, 4 1/2¢ to 5¢; dressed do, 9 1/2¢ to 10¢ for hard grain hogs.

The recent discovery of native copper seventeen miles south of Laramie is causing an enormous excitement, choice specimens sent to Denver assaying $3,000 to the ton in silver.

Treats All Chronic and Special Diseases.
YOUNG MEN
WHO may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.
MIDDLE-AGED MEN.
There are many at the age of thirty to sixty,
who are troubled with too frequent evacuations
of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found,
and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genito-urinary organs.
Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
To its Natural Vitality and color.
Advancing years,
sickness, care, disappointment, and
hereditary predis-
position, all turn
the hair gray, and
either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,
by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops
the falling of the
hair, immediately,
often renews the
growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brash, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression;
falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a Dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.
